

Important note:

1. BEA Union Investment Asian Strategic Bond Fund (the "Fund") seeks medium to long term capital growth and regular income by primarily (i.e. at least 70% of its non-cash assets) investing in debt securities that are (a) denominated in Asian currencies, or (b) issued or guaranteed by Asian governments or entities which are incorporated in Asia or have significant operations or assets in, or derive significant portion of revenue or profits from Asia, and denominated in USD or other currencies including Asian currencies.
2. The Fund invests in emerging markets and may be subject to higher liquidity and volatility risks.
3. The Fund may invest in below investment grade or non-rated debt securities, which are subject to greater credit and liquidity risks than higher-rated securities.
4. The manager may at its discretion make distributions from income and/or capital in respect of the distributing classes of the Fund. Investors should note that the distributions paid out of capital amount to a return or withdrawal of part of the unitholder's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distribution may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit.
5. In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that these currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
6. RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to foreign exchange control policies of the Chinese government. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB would adversely affect the value of investor's investment in the Fund.
7. The Fund may use derivative instruments for hedging purposes which may not achieve the intended purpose and may result in significant losses.
8. Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.

BEA Union Investment Asian Strategic Bond Fund

Oil Sector Bonds Benefit from Improving Fundamentals

Highlights:

1. Increase in oil price boosts investment grade oil sector bonds
2. Indonesian and Indian high yield corporate bonds perform resiliently
3. The Fund has risen 3.8%<sup>1</sup> since its launch

Fund Features

- The Fund adopts flexible allocation in Asian investment grade / high yield bonds, diversifying into different Asian countries, sectors, and currencies.
- Mainly invests in corporate bonds which tend to be less sensitive to rate hike cycle.

Market Review and Outlook
Review of Interest Rate Market

- Yield curve of U.S. Treasury flattened and core CPI figure in November remained lower than 2%, indicating lack of inflation pressure in the U.S.
- The U.S. Federal Reserve raised the interest rate by 0.25% in December after the FOMC meeting, in line with market expectation, and kept its forecast unchanged for the next 3 years. Strong economic data in the U.S. will continue to support the central bank's interest rate normalisation policy.

Asian Investment Grade Bonds

- Real estate and oil sector corporate bonds outperformed other sectors amid a stable industry outlook and higher oil prices. China's asset management and technology companies underperformed due to the expectation of new supply from primary markets.

Asian High Yield Bonds

- In November, Chinese high yield property and industrial bonds underperformed other sectors, while Indian and Indonesian corporate bonds showed resilience.

Investment Strategy

- The Fund is positioning itself defensively in preparation for the holiday season market quiet.
- On investment grade bonds, the Fund trimmed certain exposures in higher beta bonds and switching the investment into more defensive bonds.
- On high yield bonds, the Fund reduced long-dated bonds and bonds with weaker credit quality in the Chinese property sector, switching the investment into short-dated Chinese property bonds.
